

In the night
flying foxes in flight up, up, leaving the forest heading for the moon seeing the moonlight go for miles clouds rushing in my face like being lost in a maze somewhere in the air....
Suddenly see an orange glow in the sky Oh no...Sunrise!!! down, down, back through the clouds into the Asian jungle searching for my tree with vines and fruit and cocoa beans circling before we fall like an airplane landing on a runway.
