

2017 is the 'Year of the Rooster' according to the Chinese zodiac. The qualities of a rooster include confidence, punctuality and motivation. 'Motivation' is the new school value for this term. School Council took inspiration from the rooster and 'The Door' a poem by Czech poet Miroslav and worked with Cheryl to write the following poem which they performed in assembly at the end of January.

Looking for the Rooster

Go and open the door

What do I see? Some feathers staring back at me!
Magic feathers to make my day? Or maybe they'll just fly away.
They look like feathers from a rooster's crown
Yellow and green, red, blue and brown
If these were my feathers I might just be successful. ambitious and trustworthy
I could be like the rooster in all I do Oh Rooster, Rooster, where are you?

I'm looking hard and I'm looking long
I'm listening for the rooster's song
I'm searching far and I'm searching wide
But I can't find the rooster, so I'll go back inside....

Go and open the door

Maybe outside you will hear a loud crowing a beautiful sound that just keeps on growing
If the rooster were here, you'd know how to sing you'd make new friends and try new things
Then like the rooster you could be so cool
You'd pass your exams and do well at school
You'd be clever at maths and clever with words
Oh where is the rooster, where is that bird?

I'm looking hard and I'm looking long
I'm listening for the rooster's song
I'm searching far and I'm searching wide
But I can't find the rooster, so I'll go back inside....

Go and open the door

Maybe outside you'll feel a breeze
the rattle of trees and the falling of leaves a chill wind is blowing and I'll tell you why The rooster is using its wings to fly higher and higher, right up to the stars
If only the rooster would take me that far!
None of my dreams will ever come true
Oh magnificent Rooster, where are you?

I'm looking hard and I'm looking long
I'm listening for the rooster's song
I'm searching far and I'm searching wide
But I can't find the rooster, so I'll go back inside....

Go and open the door
Go on, go on, just try it once more
Look outside, there are tracks galore!
Tracks in the snow, left by the rooster and some of its friends, a bear with a booster Look! Even the paw of a dinosaur
I want to go with them, I can't wait anymore!
I want to be brave and I want to explore
But still, I can't do it... I shut the door.

I looked hard and I looked long
I listened for the rooster's song
I searched far and I searched wide
But there was no rooster, so I went back inside....

Aim big!

Use your gifts!

Don't be scared to go out there!

Overcome your fears!

Discover the thing that you already know....

GO AND OPEN THE DOOR!

I open the door,
but all I can see
is nothing
staring back at me
No feathers, no crowing,
no breeze and no tracks
no sign of anything
only the quiet fog
staring back at me
Oh rooster, where are you
where can you be?
Or actually....

are you inside of me?
I close the door – but change my mind
I can be determined, flamboyant and kind
I can make friends and help others less fortunate
I will be less stubborn, I will be more honest
I will laugh in the face of danger and succeed in my expectations
This year I will show resilience
I will make new friends
I will learn new skills
I will dare to dream
and push myself to my limits
I will be that rooster!!!
