

Sum2 Wk3 - English - Thursday

E Nesbit's The Railway Children

Note: You DO NOT submit this piece of work, it is just for you to complete at home.

During this session, you will be thinking about one specific scene in the story and act it out.

Think about your favourite scene from the storybook.

Here are some of the events within the story:

- Moving to The Three Chimneys
- Father being taken away
- Meeting the Green Dragon for the first time
- Waving the red flags
- The landslide
- Perks' birthday
- Meeting father

(There are other events you could choose from.)

Pick your favourite scene and act it out. Think about which characters you will need and any props you may want to make. You may need some members of your family to help you act out the scene.

Have you met the following criteria?

Criteria	Yes or No?
Loud and clear voice
Expression used throughout
Consideration of other characters' feelings
Facial expression
Eye contact
Body positions

This is the last lesson on The Railway Children - I hope you enjoyed the book :)
