

Week 7-English Lesson 4

Friday 19th June 2020

L.O: I am learning to write a newspaper report.

Starter:

Sort these sentences into direct and indirect speech:

1. "I couldn't believe my eyes when I saw the Peggy Sue," recalled Michael.
2. Michael's mother said that she refused to believe that her son was gone forever.
3. The coast guard said, "It's very unlikely to find somebody who has fallen overboard, if you don't find them within the first hour."
4. Michael said that he remembered watching a programme on television about survival and used these skills to help him survive.
5. Michael's father explained that he refused to give up and that hope was what kept him and his wife going.
6. "This experience has made me so grateful for my family and the life we have together," explained Michael.

Answers:

Remember direct speech uses the actual words that are spoken and needs inverted commas where as indirect (or reported speech) doesn't use the exact words spoken but could be a summary of what they've said.

Direct Speech

1. "I couldn't believe my eyes when I saw the Peggy Sue," recalled Michael.
3. The coast guard said, "It's very unlikely to find somebody who has fallen overboard, if you don't find them within the first hour."
6. "This experience has made me so grateful for my family and the life we have together," explained Michael.

Indirect Speech

2. Michael's mother said that she refused to believe that her son was gone forever.
4. Michael said that he remembered watching a programme on television about survival and used these skills to help him survive.
5. Michael's father explained that he refused to give up and that hope was what kept him and his wife going.
